Namibia & The Desert Express 2

Eight of us headed out of the city after the extreme heat wave that had surrounded Cape Town in the last week of February and the first week of March. In fact, I had one of the ladies who wanted to cancel because of the heat predictions for Robertson! We arrived on a cooler, almost grey day and our first stop was Viljoensdrift for a superb barge lunchtime picnic. Springfield also benefited from wine sales, albeit limited because of price!

Our tractor ride was cancelled because of lightning but a trip to Barrydale and Montagu filled the gap very nicely.

Ronnie's Sex Shop was 'worth' the drive - (oh well if you say so!)

We sauntered to McGregor (twice in one day) and met some wonderful people! Must go back to Karoux Restaurant sometime soon! We arrived back in the city late Friday afternoon refreshed yet tired - now does that make sense?! New friendships had been forged & more shopping done, "Where do I put all this wine now that I'm home" was heard! All in all a wonderful time away with superb company

Nineteen of us are heading to Natal SOON - The excitement is mounting, and packing is being planned! More details in the May issue of Traveltime News!

Sunday 11th to Friday 16th April '10

Olive Festival 2010 Saturday 1st May

is the time to have FUN,
 To hopefully get out in the SUN
 Even if the winter rains have arrived, we will enjoy the DAY
 The Olive Festival in the Riebeek Valley is where we'll PLAY.

COST for the day is R190 per person transport only! Plenty to eat and drink. For a list of restaurants - contact me and I will help you!

Travel on The Desert Express

Come along and explore Namibia on the Desert Express. This 7 night, 8 day trip is spent mainly on the Desert Express Train. You do overnight two nights in camps in Etosha.

It is a special train where you will be pampered, eat fabulous food, and hopefully remember the game that you see at the Water holes of Halali and Okaukejo Camps for a long time!

Cost of this fully inclusive tour is R21,135 pp sharing and R28,850 single accommodation. This includes the air fare from Cape Town/Windhoek/Cape Town; the full Desert Express excursion with meals as specified in the itinerary; two nights at camps in Etosha and an extra night at Windhoek Country Club and Casino before we head home!

Thursday 26th August to Thursday 2nd September
