Fri, Sat Swakopmund 380km

We meet our guide at our accommodation in Windhoek and travel to Swakopmund. Upon our arrival in the early afternoon we check into our hotel, after which we have the rest of the day to our own disposal. On the second day enjoy the coastal town at leisure.

Bronze: Swakopmund Hotel

Gold: Swakopmund Boutique Hotel / Hansa Hotel (B, D)

Sun Damaraland 440km

After breakfast we travel via the Brandberg, Namibia's highest mountain (2579m), into most Damaraland, one of the least populated and geologically diverse areas in Africa. This harsh, rocky environment is home to the rare Desert Elephant, the Black Rhino and an array of free-roaming antelope species.

Bronze: Damara Mopane Lodge (B)

Gold: Vingerklip Lodge (B, D)

Mon Etosha Area 300km

We start the morning with a visit to Twyfelfontein, a heritage site where Bushman communities engraved and painted over 2500 pictures some 6000 years ago! Close by we explore the Burnt Mountain, Organ Pipes and the Petrified Forest - all amazing geological phenomena. Here we also visit the Welwitschia mirabilis plant - the oldest living desert plant on earth! After a visit to a traditional Damara village we proceed on to our lodge situated close to the world-renowned Etosha National Park, and spend the rest of the day at leisure.

Bronze: Etosha Safari Camp (B)

Gold: Epacha Game Lodge & Spa (B, D)

Tue Etosha National Park 300km

The day is devoted purely to the abundant wildlife found in the Etosha National Park, which surrounds a parched salt desert known as the Etosha Pan. The park is home to 4 of the Big Five - Elephant, Lion, Leopard and Rhino.

Its waterholes support a rich diversity of birds and mammals, including rare species such as black-faced Impala, roan, cheetah, and Namibia's smallest antelope, the Damara Dik-Dik.

Bronze: Etosha Safari Camp (B)

Gold: Epacha Game Lodge & Spa (B, D)

Wed Etosha National Park 470km

Today we again game drive in the Etosha National Park. We may encounter animal species we have not seen the previous day and look forward to any new surprises at the different waterholes visited. In the afternoon we travel to our lodge, where we enjoy the rest of the evening at leisure and reminisce about the day's exciting events.

Bronze: Kempinski Mokuti Lodge (B)

Gold: Emanya@Etosha (B, D)

Thu Return to Windhoek 420km

After breakfast we continue southwards to Windhoek, where we visit the craft markets in the main street of the capital city, where after you are driven to your hotel or to the international airport for your return flight. (B)
