APRIL 2012

OUR DAY IN PAARL & MOUNTAIN SHADOWS

Our outing on Thursday 29th March was a very special one. Special in that it was a laid-back day in beautiful Paarl. Some ladies ambled to the Strooidak Church; some enjoyed coffee at Juno's; some went to Kiku and browsed their shop. There was no pressure and by 12:00 we were at the Mountain Shadows Guest House. Gerald and Kathy the owners of this family run business were excellent hosts. Their daughter Misty and daughter-in-law Laura, who is their chef par-excellence made sure that everyone was happy and relaxed. We tasted their wine (only 1000 bottles is bottled each year); and Kathy told us the intricacies of preparing and bottling olives and olive oil. We only had to leave by 15:00 and this made for a very relaxed day and most ladies I spoke to said they had benefited from this. I found one or two idly sitting in their two lounges browsing their incredible selection of books and the general comment was "Carol leave us here for the night - we'll be quite happy"

I was thrilled to see that Hylton Ross are 'branding' the coach on our outings—so at least now you can't get on the incorrect coach & end up with tourists in Franschhoek!

MARY HONEYBUN HONOURED
AT THE SILVER TREE RESTAURANT IN KIRSTENBOSCH

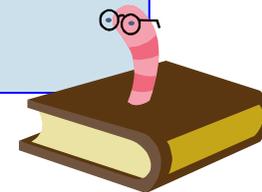

Mary was honoured at a special tea on March 7th by the Polystrene Packaging Council. This was to say thank you to the many volunteers who have made the Breadtags for Wheelchairs Project such an incredible success. Representatives from schools, community groups, individual volunteers and business watched as Mary was awarded a trophy for her tireless work. Mary we are incredibly proud with the awesome way you tirelessly devote your time to this project. Mary can be reached on 021 789 1831.

Thank you to Hilda who represented The Time Out Ladies Club on my behalf whilst I visited an ill friend in Benoni.

Some stats for you—in 2011 Mary handed over 5000 kg of bread tags!! You GO MARY—we are all SO very proud of you and your accomplishments.

Maureen takes TIME OUT in the Library at Mountain Shadows and was blissfully unaware of the photographer. Good on you, Maureen

Trish Cunningham is visiting South Africa

At our day in Paarl, we were all so very delighted to have our special Trish visiting us. Trish will be in South Africa until the 22nd May, after which she returns to the UK. She is looking exceptionally well after all her treatments, and I call her the 'invincible Trish' - so full of enthusiasm. If you wish to give her a call and meet her for coffee before she leaves again call her on 021 556 9436.

PLEASE DIARISE THURSDAY 26TH JULY. It is always a very happy day when, once again, our anniversary lunch comes around. This year we will all celebrate together with, once again, a super lunch; good food and company.

As you all know every year I have tried to 'shower' you with gifts—please let me know what your thoughts are about the gifts..... I have an idea or two but would love to hear what you think!
Give me a call.....
